

VERIFIED PETITION TO TERMINATE CHILD SUPPORT DUE TO EMANCIPATION OF MINOR CHILD(REN) General Instructions

PLEASE READ FIRST: It is very important for you to know that when you sign a Court document, you may be helping or hurting your case. Before you sign any Court document or get involved with a Court case, it is important that you see a lawyer to make sure you are doing the right thing. Although there are risks in self-representation, should you choose to represent yourself you must be prepared. Although these forms have been prepared to help you represent yourself, you should know that certain Courts have their own procedures and may not accept every form. You may represent yourself in court, but you will have to abide by the appropriate court rules, Indiana Rules of Evidence, Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure, and any local rules. For additional information, you may refer to the Indiana Self-Service Legal Center which can be found at www.in.gov/judiciary/selfservice/index.html. For legal advice about your case, you should contact a lawyer.

Step 1: Who should use this packet

You should use these forms if:

1. You do not have custody of your child(ren) and are ordered to pay support for the child(ren);
2. You have reason(s) to believe that each child for whom you are paying support to the same parent is emancipated; and
3. You want the court to terminate your child support obligation.
4. This packet also contains a form that Orders the termination of an Income Withholding Order.

A child is emancipated if the child has joined the armed services, has married, or is not under the care or control of either parent or someone else approved by the court. A child can also be emancipated if the child is at least 18 years old, has not gone to school for the last 4 months, is not enrolled in school, and is or is capable of supporting himself or herself through employment. If the court finds that the child is only partially supporting himself or herself, the court can still order you to pay some support. There is a chance that, due to changes in income or other factors, that your support obligation might go up rather than down.

If you must still pay child support to the same parent for other children even if a minor child children is/are emancipated, you must use the Verified Petition to Reduce Child Support due to Emancipation of Minor Child(ren).

Step 2: What this packet contains

This packet contains forms for you to fill out and take to the Court if you want the current child support obligation to another parent terminated because of the child(ren)'s emancipation. There are six (6) forms in this packet. This packet also contains instructions.

Step 3: Which forms to fill out

- A. If you and the other parent agree on terminating your child support obligation due to the emancipation of a minor child or children, you should fill out and file the:

Form #1 Appearance form;

Form #2 Verified Petition to Terminate Child Support due to Emancipation of Minor Child(ren);

Form #4 Order Granting Termination of Child Support due to Emancipation of Minor Child(ren); AND

Form #6 Agreed Entry to Terminate Child Support due to Emancipation of Minor Child(ren);

OR

B. If you and the other parent do not agree on terminating your child support obligation due to the emancipation of a minor child or children, you should fill out and file the:

Form #1 Appearance form;

Form #2 Verified Petition to Terminate Child Support due to Emancipation of Minor Child(ren);

Form #3 Notice of Hearing; AND

Form #4 Order Granting Termination of Child Support due to Emancipation of Minor Child(ren).

C. If there is a court order withholding income from your paycheck, whether you filled out the Forms on Part A or Part B above, you should also fill out and file the:

Form #5 Order Terminating Income Withholding Order.

Step 4: How to File These Forms

1. Follow the instructions attached to each form to fill it out. You will need to look at a copy of your current child support order to answer questions on these forms. You will need to type or print neatly in black ink. Do not write on the back or sides of the forms, write only in the blanks provided.
2. Before filing these forms, check with your local Clerk to find out the number of copies you must provide and to find out the manner your local court rules require of advising the other party of the hearing date.
3. Prepare the required number of copies of the forms that you have filled out. Take the forms and copies to the Clerk in the Court that issued the current child support order. The Clerk will file stamp the forms, keep the originals and necessary copies, and hand back the rest of the copies to you.
4. Mail one stamped copy of each form that you filed to the opposing attorney, or the opposing party if the opposing party is not represented by an attorney.
5. You must comply with your local court rules with regard to service of process. The Notice of Hearing form found in this packet might not satisfy your local rules. For example, you might have to fill out a summons to serve the other side.
6. Please be aware that any protective orders or restraining orders remain in effect throughout this process.
7. You must provide evidence at the hearing that the child(ren) is/are emancipated.
